

Hi:

IS ANYONE

HOME?

HELLO! WELCOME TO MY HUMBLE MOTOR-ABODE.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO COME IN?

Nothing humble about this gorgeous set-up up you have over here, and I just had to compliment you on it. What a great piece of machinery. Looks quite comfortable too!

Thank you! Please come in, let's sit and relax for a bit. The kids are out by the lake and I finally had time to clean up their mess. Would you like some tea? Something cold? Perhaps some cider?

Cold cider on a hot camping day? I think we'll be fast friends. I'm alright for now, thanks. Do you have a fridge in here as well?

Yep, the kitchenette is fully outfitted, so I can cook up something pretty elaborate as well. Works well when we want to go camping and someone has a craving. You know how it is, all vegetables are evil and only cheese is the winner. Between the two of us, I think my wife sometimes encourages them.

I hear you. I have two little girls and every day is a new adventure, but they seem to be eating their vegetables so far.

Before the hungry masses attack us, would you like a tour of the rest of the RV?

I'd be delighted! But first, can I wash up? Setting up the tent was a greater mess than I anticipated.

Of course. Go straight up, the door to your right. Once you're done, come past the kitchenette to the private lounge, I have a feeling you're going to like it.

I THINK I'LL

FRESHEN UP!

MAKE YOURSELF AT HOME.

Wow! Does the entertainment system over here keep your little ones occupied, or do you have to pack a dozen toys as well?

It works for a few hours, at the very least. But the swivelling recliner seats are comfortable enough for a nap after a few movies. This is my parents' favourite section of the RV. They love that they can stretch their legs while we go out chasing an adventure.

Oh, I never considered that.

The best part is the incredible storing capacity we get. I once put in a full barbecue grill, stroller, and two adult bicycles along with our luggage, and we still had space to spare.

You're really selling me on this RV! I'll be honest, I've always wondered if they were worth it, but looking at yours, I'm seriously considering buying one myself.

Let me pull out some brochures for you to look at, and then I'll get started on dinner. Your family must join us. I make a mean ravioli.

Oh, I wouldn't want to impose.

What's a little imposition between friends? Here's that JCBL brochure for you to flip through. I'll be back in a jiff!

The pasta is al dente, so I thought we could have some cider while it cools. Did the brochure answer all your questions?

That and so much more. I didn't realise it's almost entirely customisable.

Incredible, isn't it? Your girls can take full control over the interiors and the fitting.

If I do that, they're going to turn it into an underwater themed RV. We're going through a Baby Shark phase.

If anyone can make that particular fantasy come true, it's JCBL! Now come on, let's go get the family together and see if we can convince the kids to go stargazing.

Immerse yourself in luxury and reimagine the way you travel and vacation, with the help of JCBL.
Your home on wheels is waiting for you.
